

FAQ's

Q: Do I need to be an AMA member?

A: No, you do not have to have an AMA membership to race.

Q: Do I have to race both days?

A: No, you can race either Friday or Saturday but you do not have to race both days.

Q: Do I need to buy a pit pass if I am racing?

A: No, riders do not have to buy a pit pass.

Q: Who is allowed to have a pit pass and how much are they?

A: Riders, family members and mechanics are allowed to have pit passes. They are $20 per day.

Q: Where can pit pass holders sit?

A: Pit pass holders can sit anywhere in the arena.

Q: Can I race a 250 2-Stroke in the Schoolboy class?

A: No, the max CC for Schoolboy is 150 2-Stroke and 250 4-Stroke.

Q: I have a KX100, can I race it in the 85cc 12-15 class?

A: No, the only classes a KX100 is eligible for are Supermini and Schoolboy.

Q: Can I race my 85 in the Supermini class?

A: Yes, you can race a regular 85 in the Supermini class.

Q: What determines your racing age at the event?

A: Your racing age is determined by your age as of January 1st of the current year.

Q: Are the rules for Yellow Flags the same as in Pro Supercross?

A: NO, during a Yellow Flag there is NO passing or jumping. Breaking those rules will result in docked laps, positions, or DQ.

Q: When does Pre-Entry close?

A: Pre-Entry closes January 2nd, 2018.

Q: What hotels are in the area?

A: The host hotel for the race is the Holiday Inn Express right beside the arena. Tell the reservationist that you are with the 2017 Action Sports Arena Motocross Championship to receive your room for the discounted rate of $99, which includes FREE breakfast. Space is limited, reserve your room quickly.

Q: If I want to buy a pit pass, do I have to buy a general admission ticket first?

A: No, if you would like to buy a pit pass so you can gain access to the pits you do not have to buy a general admission ticket first.

If you have any further questions feel free to email them to us at dw@actionsportsracing.com